to be Dropped. WHO WAS THE VICTOR, QUAY OR MAGEE

THOM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1 HARRISBURG, May 1 .- "I have just come from your city," said Representative Brooks, of Philadelphia, the tather of high license, to THE DISPATCH correspondent this evening. "I suppose," he continued, "some of the boys would have enjoyed making it very interesting for me if they had known I was there. I have friends in the East End, though, and I spent my time with them." It may be remembered that some time ago Mr. Fow, who just now has his name mixed up with Senator Cooper's in some amendments to the Brooks law, charged that Mr. Vail, the Law and Order officer of Philadelphia, was the real author of the Brooks law. It is a fact that Mr. Vail had a hand in the making of the law, but the idea was Mr. Brooks'. In 1883 the latter ntleman would have offered a high license bill, but saw no hope for it in a Democratic House. He tried it again in a Republican House in 1885 and was beaten. In 1887 he brought the matter up again and the bill

Previous to bringing it up this last time Mr. Brooks took it to Mr. Vail for the double reason that he is a lawyer and was interested in just that line of reform. Mr. Vail put the bill in shape and Mr. Brooks wanted to pay him for his work as he would have paid another attorney, but Mr. Vail declined recompense. He thought it a case in which virtue should be its own reward.

THE REVENUE BILL WILL PASS. A Troublesome Section to be Stricken Out by the Conference Committee. 4 [FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, May 1 .- A number of the members of the Legislature came back from New York this afternoon. They left early to avoid the rush. It was hoped the members of the Conference Committee on the revenue bill might be here to consider the Senate amendments, but they were not. The only amendment likely to give trouble is the striking out of the feature added to it in the House by Dr. Neff, of Fayette, providing that interest-bearing indebtedness might be subtracted from money at interest in making return for taxation. An amendment made by the Senate at Auditor General McCamant's request will be stricken out by the Conference Committee, because the Auditor General thinks it will because the Auditor General thinks it will give rise to much litigation. It is this:

Provided also, that on returns made to the Auditor General of the obligations of public or private corporations, the residence of the holders of such obligations shall be given, and where not so given the holders shall be presumed to be residents of Pennsylvania, and tax shall be assessed, levied and paid on all of said obligations in the same manner as provided in cases where the holders are known to be residents of Pennsylvania, until satisfactory proof is furnished of residence without the Commonwealth.

NOW QUAY IS THE VICTOR.

inother Account of the Lancaster County

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, May 1.-Representative C. C. Kauffman came over this evening from his home, in Laneaster county, claiming a victory for Quay at the recent primary

"We elected four of the six delegates," he said. "Magee got the other two. Our delegate are Amos Zeigler, H. W. Heckleroth, Amos Gilbert and I. M. Witmer. The Magee delegates were J. W. Landis and I. E. Mayer. The fight was for the delegates. It wasn't, as represented, on the District Attorneyship. It is quite true, of course, that A. C. Reinoehl headed the Magee ticket as candidate for District Attorney, but E. K. Martin was for him and so were other Quay men. Mr. Martin is the gentleman who is supposed to be Mr. Quay's candidate for Lieu-tenant Governor in case the Gubernatorial candidate comes from Crawford or som

"Look out for the soldiers orphans' bills when they come back from the Senate," said Mr. Kauffman. "There will be a fight on

WHAT WILL THE HOUSE DO?

It May Refuse to Concur With the Senate the Soldiers' Orphans Bill.

THOM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, May 1 .- Dr. Walk, of Philadelphia, who has taken a great deal of interest in soldiers' orphans legislation, says the appropriation as it went to the Senate, with the Kauffman amendment to close the schools at Mercer, McAllisterville, Mt. Joy and Chester Springs, should have been passed in just that shape.
"Will the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendment?" he was asked.

"That is hard to tell," he responded. "Several times this session I have thought the House was going to do something it did

HARRISBURG, May 1 .- Representative Smiley's appropriation bill for the Clarion Normal School, which was cut down to $5,000 by the House Appropriations Commit-tee, has fared better in the Senate, where Mr. Smiley followed it in person and secured the increase of the sum to $25,000. The House will probably grant it.

FOUND DEAD IN A BARN.

Oscar Carpenter Dies Under Very Peculiar SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. HYDE PARK, MASS., May 1.-Oscar Car-HYDE PARK, MASS., May 1.—Oscar Carpenter, whose wife died three weeks ago and bequeathed her body to her mother, with the stipulation that the latter, and not her husband, should have control of it, was found dead to-dayfunder circumstances that point to either murder or suicide by poison.

Carpenter had commenced a suit to recover legal possession of his wife's body. He had driven to Quincy to secure a gravestone, and two hours after his return he was found in the barn dead. The stomach has been sent to a chemist for expert examination. WORSE AND MORE OF IT.

Two Sons Murder Their Parents to Securi

a Valuable Estate. SOMERSET, May 1.—The terrible and mysterious tragedy in Jefferson township esterday grows more revolting as the facts appear. It now seems more than probable that the two sons of old man Shaulis, who was 65 years of age, and much debilitated, was 65 years of age, and much debilitated, deliberately conspired to put the father and stepmother out of the way that they might speedily come into possession of the estate, which is valuable. The evidence so far adduced justifies the conclusion that the two sons, George and David, hanged their father deliberately, and then David, an hour later, shot his young stepmother through the body as she was returning from the barn to the house. Mrs. Shaulis is still living, and may recover.

One thing is certain, the father was hanged revious to the shooting of the mother Early one morning about two years ago Mr. Shaulis arrived in town with a sack of flour, which he asked Dr. Bonbaker, of Somerset, to examine, saying that he believed his two-sons were endeavoring to poison himself and wife. Altogether it is a most revolting and mysterious affair.

PROHIBITION WHITE CAPS.

They Twice Demolish a Saloon and th

Owner Will Move Away. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. FINDLAY, May 1 .- About two months FINDLAY, May 1.—About two months ago White Caps paid their respects to the saloon of John Mesamore, at Rawson, a small village in the western part of this county, completely demolishing everything in the room. On their departure they left a note warning Messamore not to resume business in the village or he would be similarly treated. At the time he was in Michigan. On his return he immediately resumed business at the old stand, and as a precaution against further depredations he placed a large, burly watchman on guard at night, heavily armed.

the watchman was kept on duty until about a mouth ago, when, fearing no further molestation, he was removed. Last night, however, true to their warning, the White Caps reappeared and again accomplished the demolition of the concern. Messamore has decided to leave the place and remove

JUST A DOZEN OF THEM.

Four More of the McClellandtown Outlaws

Behind the Bars. SOMERSET, May 1 .- The batch of the Mo-Ciellandtown gang of outlaws yesterday in-carcerated in the Somerset county jail, was supplemented this noon by addition of two more, making 12 men and women now being held for trial of this gang. One of the last two captured is named Grant Dean, and his companion is a slick one, who tried to have Dean released at the preliminary hearing by representing that he was a constable from Fayette county with a warrant for Dean's arrest.

Dean's arrest.

The scheme didn't work, and he was taken into custody with the others. The rickety and debilitated old jail at this place now contains 20 hardened criminals and a general jail delivery is among the probabilities. A double force of guards has been put inside and outside of the jail.

THE BIG OIL FIGHT.

Pipe Lines Can Easily Und the Railroads.

"How is the Globe Refining Company to compete with the Standard Oil monopoly?" is a question the oil men have been propounding to one another since Messrs. Widener and Eikins have made known their plans for a great refinery in this city to refine oil for export trade. In the past it has proved impossible for oil refiners getting the crude product sible for oil refiners getting the crude product by railroad to compete with the pipe line owners. Yet this is what the Globe Company is about to do. Not long ago the Chester Oil Company, running a large refining plant at Chester, gave up the whole establishment and went to Bayonna, N. J., because there its pipe line could be used.

The Pennsylvania Bailroad Company, it is said, estimates that the oil can be carried from the Western Pennsylvania fields to tidewater for not less than 40 cents a barrel except at a loss. If, however, the rate should be reduced to 30 cents, the competition of the pipe line would still be disastrous, for the cost per barrel by pipes is only 16 cents, making full allowance for interest on capital and depreciation of plant. Under these circumstances considerable surprise is expressed that the Globe Refinery should be starting operations here.

A New Plan of Lots Almost Adjoining Allison Park, on the Pitts burg and Western Railroad, Laid out by John L. Wyland.

These lots are nicely situated within four minutes' walk of the station, and are really eight lots in one. The average size is 100x200 feet and the price is but very little higher them those just sold at Allison Park, which are but one-eighth the size.

I offer as much ground for $300 in this plan of lots as those alongside are charging $1,600 for. These lots are large enough to raise your own vegetables. The terms are but $100 down, balance in one or two years, or 10 per cent off for cash.

Don't be induced to purchase a small lot when you can buy a half acre for the same price. There is no finer view in the country than at Grand View—a distance of twenty miles can be plainly seen.

The property is but ten and a half miles from the city and the accommodations for trains, stores, postoffice, etc., are complete.

No better opportunity for purchasing a large lot for little money is offered.

Plans can be seen at my store, or by calling I will take parties to the place.
